-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 1-11 are replete with errors too numerous to point out in their entirety. The claim contains many instances of lack and antecedent basis in particular. Below are just a few examples. Additionally the claims are unclear what the exact method steps are since no method steps have been clearly recited. As written the claims are generally narrative in form.

Claim 5 appears incorrect in claiming redundant restructure and method steps as recited in claim 1.

Claim 6 recites the limitation "the extraction means". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 7, 9, 10 recites the limitation "the orientation changing means". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 8 recites the limitation "the insertion means". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 7 recites the limitation "the means for turning". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Art Unit: 3651

Claim 8 recites the limitation "each extractor stop". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. Only one extractor stop is previously recited in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

4. Claims 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 8, 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Gerwe USP 5,897,292.

Gerwe discloses all of the claim limitations in a similar method comprising:

Art Unit: 3651

- Extracting from a compartment an item in which it has been placed (items are extracted and 18)
- Changing the orientation of each extracted item so that it can be placed in a determined empty compartment head-to-tail relative to its initial insertion direction (the orientation of the extracted item is changes relative to the compartment at point 19)
- Reinserting said reoriented item into an empty compartment

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 4, 7, 9, 10 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
